Weekly Status Report #6

Goals from last week:

- ● Complete beta release
- ● Pat each other on the back over the beta release
- ● Re-evaluate our desired stretch features and determine which should be potentially implemented

Progress this week:

- ● Progress
  - ○ Prepared demo
  - ○ Set up rollover for tracked spending
  - ○ Refactored some of the app's backend code
  - ○ Complete budget calculation
  - ○ Figured out time travel
- ● Problems
  - ○ Did not prepare for some use cases when planning class structure
  - ○ Different phones have varying implementations of some native objects
  - ○ Difficult to test app since so much relies on the passage of time
- ● Lessons
  - ○ Work on documentation as we go
  - ○ "If there's a single lesson that life teaches us, it's that wishing doesn't make it so." - Albert Einstein

Plans and goals for next week:

- ● Get all major features of app implemented
  - ○ UI - tutorial and login, specific times for recurring charges/income
  - ○ Integration between application and network
  - ○ biWeekly and twiceMonthly calculations
- ● Hallway test the actual app functionality
